How much is the UK rooftop photovoltaic subsidy per panel

Overview

Are there solar panel grants in the UK?

There are solar panel grants for homeowners in the UK, from Smart Export Guarantee to zero VAT. Read about solar panel funding options & how to apply!.

Are there free solar panels in the UK?

Good news: in the UK there are several solar panel funding incentives available as of May 2025 that can significantly lower installation costs. While there isn't a universal "free solar panels for everyone" grant, you can benefit from government schemes and tax breaks to make going solar more affordable.

How much do solar panels cost in the UK?

Although solar panels are much cheaper today than in past years, they are still a significant investment. They can cost anywhere between £3,000 and £10,000 and paying out such large sums of money may not be easy for everyone. If you find yourself in this situation you might want to consider the solar panel finance options available in the UK.

How many UK households don't have solar panels?

That all means that just 13% of the 27 million UK households that don't yet have solar panels are eligible for a grant, according to our analysis of government data. Thankfully, a lack of government funding hasn't stopped the popularity of solar panels from skyrocketing all over the country.

How do I qualify for free solar panels in the UK?

You may qualify for free solar panels if you're eligible for one of the UK's four main grants. However, two of these grants are only available in England, one can only be accessed in Wales, and all of them come with stringent qualifying criteria that target the most deprived households.

Are solar panels 0% VAT rated?

Since 1 April 2022, the UK government has made solar panels, solar batteries, and other energy-saving materials 0% VAT-rated. This policy will remain in effect until 31 March 2027. Previously, these products carried a reduced 5% VAT for certain eligible homes – but now 0% VAT applies for everyone regardless of income or property type.
