Overview

Will BMR energy build a wind farm in Jamaica?

It would be the first project for BMR Energy and the first private company to build a wind farm in Jamaica. Despite the government of Jamaica's interest in renewable energy, local, long-term financing was nearly impossible to attain given the weak economic situation.

What is wind powered irrigation project – Jamaica?

The project titled, “Wind Powered Irrigation Project – Jamaica”, engaged the OAS/DSD together with the NIC, MSTEM and other local partners in conducting a wind resource analysis. Read More.

Could a 36-megawatt wind turbine farm be built in Jamaica?

Bruce Levy, CEO and President, and his partner Andrew Rovito, Senior Vice President, had a vision: construct a 36-megawatt (MW) wind turbine farm, using 11 3.3 MW wind turbines, which at the time was virtually unheard of in Jamaica, where most wind turbines are at the 2 MW size.

Will Jamaica generate 50% of its electricity by 2030?

Jamaica has set an ambitious aim of generating 50% of its electricity from renewable sources by 2030, reflecting its commitment to sustainable energy and climate resilience.

Do fossil fuels dominate Jamaica's energy landscape?

Despite the progress in renewable energy adoption, fossil fuels dominate Jamaica's energy landscape. As of 2020, fossil fuels amounted to approximately 87% of Jamaica's electricity generation . This heavy reliance on fossil fuels, particularly oil, presents significant challenges to the nation's energy security and environmental objectives .

Why is Jamaica struggling with energy security and economic resilience?

Jamaica's energy sector has long been dominated by a reliance on imported fossil fuels, which has posed significant challenges to its energy security and economic resilience. The country has faced volatility in global oil prices, leading to substantial foreign exchange expenditures and economic instability
