Mauritius Photovoltaic Energy Storage Policy

Overview

Does Mauritius need a battery energy storage system?

Mauritius aims to increase the share of renewable energy sources in its energy mix, which leads to fluctuating power injection. To reduce this fluctuation from variable renewable energy sources, the installation of Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS) is required.

Are there integrated photovoltaics in Mauritius?

According to MARENA, there are currently no building integrated photovoltaics in Mauritius. Energy efficiency is now one of the main criteria in the design of public buildings and in rental of private buildings. The Green Building Council Mauritius was set up in 2009 to promote green building and is a member of World Green Building Council.

What is the long-term energy policy of Mauritius?

In April 2007, the Government of Mauritius adopted the 'Outline of the Energy Policy 2007-2025 - Towards a Coherent Energy Policy for the Development of the Energy Sector in Mauritius'. This document outlines the Government's long-term vision for the energy sector.

Does Qair Group operate solar energy farms in Mauritius?

Qair Group already operates three solar PV and wind energy farms in Mauritius with a combined capacity of 35 MW. The group founded by Jean-Marc Bouchet has a combined renewable energy capacity of 860 MW operational in Africa, South-East Asia, South America, and Europe.

Why is Mauritius facing a rise in fossil fuels?

The country, located off the coast of East Africa, is facing a rise in fossil fuels due to the current energy crisis. Qair Group already operates three solar PV and wind energy farms in Mauritius with a combined capacity of 35 MW.

Why should you invest in Mauritius?

- Mauritius, as an integral part of the African Continent has excellent bilateral ties with African Countries.
- Moreover, the local expertise of Mauritius in the energy sector coupled with the offering of its International Financial Centre can be leveraged upon for structuring and management of energy projects in Africa.
