Overview

How long does it take to ship a container to Tunisia?

Shipping line: The shipping line or shipping company used can affect transit times. Some shipping companies may offer faster services or more direct routes than others. In general, transit times for container shipments to and from Tunisia can vary from a few days to several weeks.

How to organize a container shipment to and from Tunisia?

Organizing a container shipment to and from Tunisia requires the necessary documentation and knowledge of freight information to enable the export and/or import of goods from one country to another.

How do I arrange a shipment to or from Tunisia?

Contact DTL GROUP customer service or request a quote to arrange your shipment and find out the transportation time according to your needs. Cargo insurance is not required to ship to or from Tunisia, but transporting cargo can involve several risks.

What documents are required to ship a container to Tunisia?

Shipping containers to and from Tunisia requires the submission of documents to customs in order to clear the goods into the country. Bill of lading: transport contract containing details of the shipment from the shipper to the final consignee.

Can I export foreign currency from Tunisia?

Tunisian law prohibits the export of foreign currency from Tunisia as payment for imports prior to the presentation to the bank documents confirming shipment of the merchandise to the country. Usually, a freight forwarder or Tunisian Customs documents serve this purpose.

How does customs clearance work in Tunisia?

The process of clearing goods changes from country to country and even from port to port. Knowing in advance the customs clearance rules valid in Tunisia allows you to cross the border without complications. DTL GROUP, upon request, handles cargo clearance services for the shipper.
